Dear Dr. Holley:

Thank you for your note of March 22 and the enclosed Morehouse College Bulletin. I was very interested in reading the tributes to Gladstone Lewis Chandler. I am not surprised at all that he was so well thought of at Morehouse by all those who came in contact with him. I did have an opportunity of meeting him once when his son was an undergraduate at Middlebury and one could not help but like him immediately. We were certainly very proud to claim him as an alumnus of Middlebury and proud of the accomplishments that he has made since he graduated from Middlebury in 1926.

There was a short obituary in the winter issue of the NEWS LETTER. I wrote a note of sympathy to the family and had a very nice reply.

I agree with you 100% that Gladstone was a gentleman, an athlete, a scholar, and a wonderful friend. He will certainly be missed by all those who knew him.

As you requested, we are returning the Morehouse College Bulletin to you under separate cover. Many thanks for sending it to us and letting us share the tributes that were paid to our good friend by Morehouse College.

Best personal regards to you and yours.

Sincerely yours,
